The Annual Parish Campaign in support of St. Joseph Seminary and Newman Theological College takes place next weekend of February 11-12, 2012. It is through this campaign that expenses such as faculty and staff salaries, library books, food for seminarians, heating, water and electrical costs are covered. Your generous support ultimately enables the seminary and college to develop strong Catholic leadership, both lay and ordained, for our parishes, schools and communities. Our 2011 campaign raised nearly $282,000; this year's goal is $285,000.
